Thomson Reuters - West PRODUCT PLACEMENT OVERVIEW

Since being founded by John B. West in 1872, West has been at the leading edge of innovation. West delivers a powerful competitive advantage to its customers by providing the highest-quality legal, regulatory and business information and the most innovative technology tools to manage it. Each of these companies has added to West's resources in primary and analytical law and enriched West's reputation in the legal information industry. West offers a wide selection of information products and services especially for legal, compliance and HR professionals in the corporate workplace as well as for solo practitioners and small firms. Many West innovations have become synonymous with the successful practice of law, including:

- The West Topic and Key Number System, the master classification system of U.S. law
- Westlaw® the industry-leading service, with 16,700 legal, financial and business news databases
- KeyCite®, the revolutionary citation research service

West Publishing

West Publishing was founded by John B. West and his brother Horatio in 1872 in St. Paul, Minnesota. In 1975, West Publishing launched its first computer-assisted legal research service, Westlaw. West Publishing moved its headquarters to Eagan, Minnesota, in 1992. West annually publishes over 66 million books and 500 CD-ROM libraries. To enable customers to focus on the successful practice of law, West leverages its knowledge of the legal market with solutions for client development and legal office automation, provided by our affiliated Thomson businesses, Thomson Elite and Findlaw. In addition, West offers a number of legal education components, including online CLE courses and preparatory materials for the Bar review. West has been part of Thomson since 1996, and now forms part of the Thomson Legal & Regulatory market group.

Publications Include: Court Rules, Dictionaries & Desk References, Digests, Handbooks, Law School Publications, Legal Encyclopedias, Reporters, Statutes, Federal Legal References & State Legal References & More....

Westlaw

Westlaw is West's online legal research service. It provides quick, easy access to West's vast collection of statutes, case law materials, public records, and other legal resources, along with current news articles and business information.

Westlaw StatutesPlus™: Statute research the way you've always wanted it to be. Westlaw StatutesPlus™ makes it easier to find, verify, read and interpret statutes by presenting all relevant information in one place.

My Westlaw: Customize Westlaw to match your needs. Lets you add to, remove and rearrange the search tools, databases, and shortcuts on your Westlaw tabbed pages.

KeySearch™: A more precise way to search. An alternative Westlaw search method that uses a point-and-click interface to help you formulate more precise queries.

West Reporter Images: Get case-law copies from your printer. This feature lets you make instant electronic " photocopies" of National Reporter System® bound-volume cases for offline reading and distribution.

Westlaw ResultsPlus: Dig deeper into your research. Improves case-law searches on Westlaw by automatically providing relevant ALR articles and key-number resources related to your search WestClip®: Track new Westlaw content automatically. Monitor breaking news and legal developments that could affect your organization and clients with this free clipping service.

Westlaw Research Trail: Retrace research steps in Westlaw. Provides a fast and easy way to return to incomplete research tasks and document your research efforts.

KeyCite is West's citation research service on Westlaw®. With KeyCite, you can verify instantly whether your case, statute, administrative decision, or regulation is good law and find citing references to support and strengthen your legal argument.

Trace the history of a case, statute, administrative decision or regulation to determine if it is good law.

Retrieve a list of all citing cases, statutes, pending legislation, administrative decisions and analytical sources that have cited your case, statute, administrative decision or regulation

Locate the most pertinent authority to help you develop a complete understanding of your legal issue.

Identify weaknesses in an opponent's case with "Table of Authorities" precision and accuracy

Receive instant notification of changes in the law with KeyCite Alert

The Rutter Group (TRG) Since 1979, TRG has provided the legal community with the most authoritative and practical programs and publications available. TRG publishes the Rutter Group Practice Guides, authored by some of the best-known judges and lawyers for use in California. TRG Programs present timely and practical information lawyers and judges can use in the day-to-day practice of law. The Rutter Group began its legal publishing efforts with the California Practice Guide and is also known as one of the premier providers of continuing legal education. It affiliated with West Publishing in 1994.

FindLaw

FindLaw

FindLaw began in 1995 as a list of Internet resources compiled by engineer and attorney Timothy Stanley and attorney Stacy Stern for a workshop held by the Northern California Law Librarians. Response to the material was so positive that the team decided to post it on the Web, allowing others to use these resources. In January 1996, FindLaw was launched, and it continues to grow in scope as well as popularity. In 2001, West acquired FindLaw, which has become the leader in free online legal information and services, and the highest-trafficked legal Web site.
